

Trophic Communications

Would you like to work at the forefront of biotech/pharma communications?

About Trophic Communications:

Trophic serves as a strategic partner for all aspects of communications for life science companies. We apply a deep understanding of both the science and business of drug development and the capital needed for success. Based on breadth and depth of our experience, Trophic has become the go-to advisory for presenting corporate stories and scientific concepts. Current client portfolio ranges from biotech start-ups, listed biopharmas to small and large pharmaceutical companies.

What We're Looking For:

Are you interested in business? Science? Communications? Trophic is looking to hire a dedicated new team member, entry-level or with experience, to cover a varied range of tasks in our rapidly expanding company.

Requirements:

- Strong written communication skills as well as networking skills (face-to-face or on the telephone)
- Interest and/or knowledge in life science and social media
- Detail-oriented
- Fluent in both English and German (C2 level)
- Preferably with an educational background in science, business and/or language
- Comfortable with Microsoft Office including Word, Powerpoint and Excel

Job Description:

At Trophic we cover all aspects of strategic communications for pharmaceutical and biotech companies including positioning, industry visibility and perception, public and media relations, investor relations and senior counsel. As a member of our Team you will need to combine creative communication skills with professional integrity and a dedication to face diverse tasks and challenges such as:

- Writing: emails, press releases, company presentations, briefing books, website content or fact sheets, you will need to be able to communicate complex financial and scientific issues to a wide audience in both German and English.
- Research: using databases, media outlets and internet to analyse and collect information and statistics in the biotech industry
- Investor Relations: investor outreach, targeting key players in the investment community to create effective corporate communications strategies and deliver results
- Public Relations: survey industry news and working with the media to pitch important news and developments.

The global clientel of our company will require you to find creative solutions to various challenges and also be flexible in your working hours.
